

Alabama Disaster Case Management

Frequently Asked Questions

Below are some FAQ's for the Alabama Disaster Case Management Request for Proposal:

Can agencies that receive sub-awards sub-grant positions to other organizations?

Yes, agencies who are awarded ALDCMP sub-grants as Provider Level agencies from the State can sub-grant positions to other agencies in their service area. However, the Provider Level will be responsible for those funds and will need to keep centralized for monitoring and audit purposes

Will a separate RFP be issued for Training providers and for an Evaluation?

Yes, in the upcoming weeks separate Request for Proposals will be issued for 1.) Training Provider(s) and 2.) Evaluation.

Will the timeline and anticipated award date stay the same?

No, not necessarily as of 9/16/2011 the State of Alabama has not received the official notification of award. Until the grant is officially awarded, the GFBCI cannot enter into any grant agreements. Revised timelines will be posted at www.ServeAlabama.gov as they become available.

Will the scoring tool for the RFP be available?

Yes, the scoring tool that will be used to review the proposals will be posted on the web site (at a later date).

Can a case manager who is currently working be paid under this grant?

Yes, if an organization receives a grant award under the ALDCM program, case managers can be transitioned into this grant. However, organizations can only invoice for the salaries listed in Table 2. If an organization chooses to pay salaries above the allowable amount, it must come from another funding source.
